Common Leys Farm

A Precious Gem In The Oxfordshire Countryside Side

Thank you for choosing to spend some quality time at Common Leys, your experience is our satisfaction! Traditional home cooked meals are all served in our Parlour Restaurant within the beautiful Oxfordshire countryside surrounding Common Leys Farm.

Come for lunch or dinner and choose from our menu of wonderful locally sourced food, indulge in our range of sumptuous light bites, or let us tempt you with a traditional aga baked cream tea. Most of our vegetables are organic, and where possible locally sourced, and all of our meat comes from local producers, some even from this very farm. Why not test us, we know the details down to the field they lived on - we guarantee you will want to come back for more!

Along with all we have to offer we also aim to provide a quality service for special occasions or even just a casual lunch; we also cater for parties for any occasion you require including corporate events and children's parties. We also have clay pigeon shooting which can be arranged to suit your needs; whether they are a corporate event, a family day out, or even just a lesson.

We at Common Leys Farm believe passionately in using local, free-range meat and produce. We also believe that a meal comes with vegetables, potatoes, and all of the trimmings, without an additional charge. Evening meals are available throughout the year mainly on a Thursday, Friday and Saturday if pre-booked in advance. Why not call into our Watering Hole lounge bar and try some of our local brews from Vale Brewery in Brill.

We strive to make your time at common leys as enjoyable as possible and we will do all we can to accommodate you for any special requirements you may have.
